

Work in Progress

Contributed by Bob Raynham
Wednesday, 12 September 2007
Last Updated Friday, 14 September 2007

{mos_fb_discuss:no_discuss}Research projects and others matters of interest continue be progressed and those with an interest can and are being advised via email messages. On going contact and exchange of information has not been documented here due to the sheer quantity that has been gratefully received. I specifically thank Alan Kearsley, Neil Cox, Will and Paul Raynham for their continued efforts to improve the overall knowledge of their Raynham branch and to the overall progress of charting the Raynham history. The initials after each entry relates to the person who has been involved with this item and unless specifically stated no links to the Raynham Tree has been confirmed:

- Continuing the research on the Australian/UK Warren line of the Raynham family. (AK)
- Researching the family line of Peter Raynham from England, born 1955. (PR)
- Contact with Rob Raynham from Nottingham whose family has been connected with the Raynham Tree via George Warren Raynham R179. (BR)
- Contact with Barry Green from England, whose wife is linked to the Raynhams of Grimsby.
- Contact with Elizabeth Raynham from Essex who was researching her Raynham family, research has linked her family to that of Joan Sussex. (BR)
- Contact with Anna Maria Raynham of England, whose Raynham family is linked to the Raynham Tree via George Warren Raynham R179 and thus related to Rob Raynham of Nottingham. (BR)
- Received contemporary press report on the inquest and trail of George Partridge, who was hanged for the murder of a young boy in 1829 at Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk. He was the brother of Robert Partridge who married Sarah Raynham R38.
- Contact with Michael Raynham Benton of Australia trying to link his family to the RaynhamTree.(BR)
- The James Raynham (b 1825) and his wife Emma Tuff branch with their Australian links has been connected to the Tree via William Raynham R297. (AK & BR)